SECURITY

The current status of the Vigipirate plan in France is that the entire national territory has been maintained at the highest level, known as 'attack emergency', since 15 January 2025 and until further notice. This Vigipirate 'summer-autumn 2025' posture, effective since 1 July 2025, is in response to a terrorist threat that remains high, particularly in connection with instability in the Near and Middle East.

There will be the presence of security agents during all event periods. They will perform a visual check at the entrance of the building upon your arrival.

NO SMOKING

The place of the congress are free-smoking. Smoking is permitted outside the building.

WEATHER IN FRANCE

In September, Nantes will have minimum temperatures of 13°C and maximum temperatures of 23°C. It is milder in Nantes, so don't hesitate to go out, but make sure you wrap up warm.

Our forecasts estimate an average of 3 to 8 days of rain in Nantes in September. To avoid getting caught out by the rain, don't forget to take an umbrella with you. For further information about the weather forecast, please click here.

SUSTAINABILITY

We would like to encourage you to read hereafter our sustainable recommendations for you to contribute to a successful and responsible event.

September 10-12, 2025 La Cité des Congrès, Nantes

CODE OF GOOD CONDUCT

You will find below the code of good conduct. Please read it carefully.

To enable us to act with respect for people and the environment, we ask participants (including visitors, speakers, exhibitors, sponsors and anyone else present at the event) to ensure that:

- Respect all other participants, whatever their origin, sex, beliefs, opinions or community.
- Refrain from any degrading, discriminatory or harassing behaviour or language, such as:
  - Unwanted photography or recording;
  - Producing discriminatory images or text;
  - Using images, comments or jokes of a sexual or discriminatory nature;
  - Unwanted physical contact;
  - Deliberate intimidation;
  - Stalking.
- ▶ Refrain from any violence, whether physical or verbal, such as the use of offensive comments linked to sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, ethnic origin, religion, etc;
- Notify a member of the organisation if they witness a dangerous situation, a person in distress or a breach of the code of conduct.

Any participant who fails to comply with the above rules may be subject to a penalty imposed by the organisers, such as a warning or expulsion without reimbursement.

A simple warning must result in the immediate cessation of the behaviour, even if it was supposed to be "friendly" or "humorous".

We also reserve the right to notify the police and take legal action against any person found to have behaved in a legally reprehensible manner.

Don't hesitate to contact an organising member even if you have any doubts about the behaviour - prevention is key.
